250 AGENCY PERSONNEL HEAR CHESTER BOWLES LECTURE

Some 250 persons from most headquarters components of the Agency braved June heat in the R & S Auditorium to hear Chester Bowles discuss his most recent trip to the Indian subcontinent and Central Europe. The presentation, on 20 June, was sponsored by the Language and Area School. Mr. Bowles, former Ambassador to India and Nepal, described meetings with such national leaders as Nehru, Suhrawardy, Menon, and Khrushchev, and discussed the effect of U. S. foreign policy in the areas he visited.

EXPERIMENTAL BASIC SUPERVISION NIGHT CLASS RUN AT SPECIAL REQUEST

Recently, Management Training/Intelligence School introduced an experiment in its program by beginning a night course in supervision at the request of the chief of one of the registry groups in the Agency. This is a special adaptation of the regular Basic Supervision course. Sessions were held 3 nights a week (Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday) 2000 to 2130 for 3 weeks.

NEW CORRESPONDENCE SCHOOLS CATALOG AVAILABLE AT YOUR REGISTRAR'S OFFICE

There is now available within the Office of the Registrar a catalog designed to assist a training officer or prospective student in locating a correspondence course within a subject field from among 49 colleges and universities throughout the United States offering correspondence courses. Most of the courses are at the collegiate undergraduate level. A few, however, offer graduate level courses or high school courses. Among some of the subject matter fields, which may be of interest to Agency individuals, are the following: accounting, business, commerce, economics, engineering, geography, foreign languages, mathematics, police science and writing.

Many of these home study courses are available to you regardless of your previous academic experience. For general information regarding enrollment procedures, enrollment fees, prerequisites and credit at a particular U. S. college or university, contact R/TR, extension 4005.

GLOSSARY OF INTELLIGENCE TERMINOLOGY
REVISED EDITION PASSES 1700 MARK

Some 1700 copies of OTR Manual TR RM 0-1, GLOSSARY OF INTELLIGENCE TERMINOLOGY, now are in use throughout the Agency. Requests for the publication, following initial distribution, have been substantial. If you are interested in obtaining a copy, contact extension 3735. (The cover is reproduced on the opposite page.)

This is the revised edition, superseding that issued in October 1953, and "... is intended to satisfy the needs of instructors and students within the Office of Training, through the identification of intelligence terms which are in common usage."

In the FOREWORD, "The Office of Training expresses appreciation to individuals throughout the organization who submitted suggestions incorporated in this revision."

CLERICAL SKILLS QUALIFICATION TESTS
SCHEDULED FOR AUGUST - SEPTEMBER

Clerical Skills Qualification Tests in shorthand and typewriting, administered to on-the-job employees who must meet Agency standards, will be given during August and September on Mondays, in Room 508, 1016 16th Street, as follows:

12 August    26 August    16 September

(Typewriting: 1315 Shorthand: 1400)

Because testing would ordinarily be given on 2 September, which is Labor Day, the above dates are a variation from the usual testing pattern.

Supervisors who wish to have employees tested should get in touch with their Personnel Placement Officers. The officers will arrange for test registration.

Usually, employees who do not meet the Agency clerical skills standards in these tests should be enrolled in the Clerical Refresher Program, listed in your office copy of the OTR Catalog as courses B-12 to B-19.

DEPARTMENTAL BRIEFING SERVES IAC
OCR, OCI PERSONNEL ALSO ATTEND

Recently, the Departmental Briefing was conducted for 60 persons from the Army, Navy, Air Force, State, NSA, and USIA. General John Cassidy, Staff Director of the President's Board of Consultants, was present.

The Departmental Briefing is a 3-hour IAC-oriented briefing on intelligence which is given once a month. The DDCI usually opens the program with a word of welcome. Then the OTR Orientation Officer lectures on the Federal intelligence system, with particular emphasis on CIA's services of common concern and its coordinating role.

Recent response to this program by other agencies has been good. The Office of the Chief of Special Warfare, Department of the Army, has just asked for monthly reservations to attend the Briefing. The National Security Agency has requested that its 10-week Senior Staff Officers Course be opened with the presentations that now make up the Departmental Briefing.

In addition, persons from the Agency, specifically OCR and OCI, periodically attend the Briefing, which is listed in your office copy of the OTR Catalog. For information concerning it, please call Paul [redacted] extension 3601.

GERMAN BIBLIOGRAPHY PRAISED
DEPARTMENT OF STATE REQUESTS COPIES

Germany: A Bibliography (revised edition, December 1956, unclassified), prepared by the Language and Area School with the OTR Library staff's help, soon will be used by the Department of State in the orientation of middle and senior grade personnel for field assignment.

Jonathan Dean, of the Office of German Affairs, has requested an allotment of copies, stating that this bibliography has created "a sensation" in the Department! It is unique in its listing of the most useful materials on Germany, in English, published since World War II.

Another revised edition is planned for the fall as a teaching aid in the Basic Country Survey - Germany which begins on 15 October. One section of this revised edition will include titles in German for the use of the new full-time intermediate German language class (Integrated Language/Area Study - Germany), to begin on 14 October, which will concern itself with area materials.

LANGUAGE STUDY PROGRESSES

Current enrollment in internal language training courses is approximately 159; enrollment in self-study programs is approximately 201.

Current enrollment in non-duty-hours language courses, morning and evening classes, is 120, studying French, German, Italian and Spanish.

The Language Laboratory, 2132 Eye Building, was utilized by 214 students during the past month, for a total of 1944 hours, in the study of 18 different languages.

Language Proficiency examinations recently were taken by 58 people from various Agency components. The languages were:

Arabic	Italian
Chinese (Mandarin)	Japanese
French	Russian
German	Spanish

OTR Qualifications Review and Placement Panels recently met to consider people for the following language studies:

German	Spanish

NON-DUTY-HOURS LANGUAGE TRAINING INSTRUCTORS NEEDED FOR A.M. & P.M. JOIN NOW! CALL LAS/TR, EXT. 4437

The Volunteer Instructors' Roster now includes about 80 persons who have indicated interest in teaching about 30 languages in the Agency's Non-Duty-Hours Language Training Program.

So far, over 20 of these volunteers have assumed responsibility for classes in German, French, Russian, Finnish and Chinese. Others will be invited to conduct classes as demand develops. Each volunteer instructor is compensated at the normal overtime pay rate, on a basis of 15 hours for each 2-week pay period.

At present, there is not a surplus of volunteers for any language. Current need is for instructors in Romance, Germanic and Slavic languages. LAS/TR also is interested, however, in adding to the Roster instructors for unusual languages -- such as those of Southeast Asia and Black Africa.

Next classes to be organized will begin on 3 September and conclude the 16-week trimester on 20 December 1957.

If you will teach an A.M. or P.M. class, please phone extension 4437 for a Roster Reference Card; fill it out and return it to LAS/TR (2129 Eye Building). Your name will be added to the Roster and, as need develops, you will be contacted to determine whether or not you currently are interested in assuming an instructional post.

INTEGRATED LANGUAGE/AREA STUDY
GERMANY.....FRANCE.....ITALY

You are invited to study Germany in German, France in French, or Italy in Italian. OTR will inaugurate these three 10-week Integrated Language/Area Studies in 1957-1958. The Germany course will run 14 October - 20 December; the France course 10 March - 16 May 1958; the Italy course 20 September - 5 December 1958.

These will be full-time courses, emphasizing language instruction at the intermediate level. They are intended for graduates of our Basic (Full-Time) language courses or for other qualified employees desiring to refresh their foreign language. Enrollment will be limited to 8 persons.

Area knowledge -- through the use of teaching materials concerned with the country -- will be the principal by-product of these new courses. Another will be familiarity with the vocabulary of public affairs, actually in use in that country, along with practice in discussing domestic and foreign problems. A few hours also will be devoted to intelligence terminology.

Simultaneously, a part-time Basic Country Survey, in English, will be scheduled on the country concerned. These will be the first offerings of the Basic Country Surveys on France and Italy.

In the new Integrated Language/Area Studies, the time requirements of language drill will limit the quantity of area materials to be studied, but a class will benefit from the simultaneous running of the Basic Country Survey on the country. The Integrated Language/Area Study class generally will attend two lectures a week in the survey course as a means of acquiring additional ideas for subsequent discussion in the language. Also, a considerable number of bilingual guest lecturers in the survey course will move on, later the same day, to lead a discussion or to lecture in the foreign language on a phase of the material previously covered in English.

Area materials in the language will be drawn from the fields of history, geography, cultural pursuits, economics, government, politics, social conditions, and foreign affairs. Vocabulary drill and recitation on assigned texts will be followed up with short talks by the students, lectures by specialists, and group discussions.

These full-time, intermediate language courses are expected to raise the student's competency to a level substantially above what OTR heretofore has aimed to achieve, that is, to a stage of considerable fluency in the use of a general vocabulary.

OTR PANELS PROVIDE SERVICE
TO SUPERVISORS AND INDIVIDUALS
CONTEMPLATING FULL-TIME STUDIES

OTR Qualifications Review and Placement Panels evaluate individual qualifications and recommend appropriate study programs for all candidates seeking full-time training - language and area (internal or external), and other types of external training - involving 7 or more weeks.

Qualifications are evaluated in terms of the requirements of the specific training activity proposed by the candidate's office. In addition, alternative methods of training are considered where such seem better suited to the individual's abilities or the training objective, or both.

As a service to supervisors, and individuals, panel recommendations may be requested before an actual decision to submit a training request has been made. Use of this service makes available to supervisors additional information that may assist them in selecting candidates for full-time training. Individuals desiring to know whether or not they meet standards for qualification, or who want training guidance with reference to specified objectives, may request Panel consideration. In either case, the procedure is as follows:

1. Submission of a form entitled, Request for Qualifications Review and Placement Panel Consideration, copies of which may be obtained from the Language and Area School/TR, Room 2129, Eye Building, extension 8015.
2. Completion of the Professional Employees Testing Battery.
3. If language training is being considered, completion of the Foreign Language Aptitude Test Battery.
4. Submission of a copy of academic record for education above high school.

Submission of the request (1. above) does not constitute a request for training, nor does it commit an individual to take training or his office to release him for training. Panel certification that an individual is qualified does not assure that a training request will be approved; nor does certification of qualifications for a particular course automatically constitute certification for any other course.

Panels meet regularly on the 4th Thursday of each month; all tests must be completed, and notification of desire for Panel consideration must reach LAS/TR, at least 2 weeks prior to that day. Supervisors and appropriate Training Officers will be invited to serve as members of Panels that consider persons of concern to them.

TITLE	Reading Techniques - Executive (Workshop)
OBJECTIVES	To inform senior personnel concerning efficient reading techniques, and to lay the groundwork for improved reading understanding, speed, and retention
PREREQUISITES	Secret clearance Interview with instructor
ENROLLMENT	5 to 11
DURATION	2 weeks, 2 hours per day (20 hours)
LOCATION	Headquarters

This course briefly reviews and clarifies reading techniques for effective intelligence reading. Senior personnel can gain ideas to organize their own reading time better, and to advise subordinates concerning the application of good reading principles.

The course sets forth the same principles of effective reading as does the Reading Techniques course, emphasizing flexibility in reading different subjects for different purposes. Lectures, discussion and practice exercises applying the techniques to intelligence reports, Agency regulations, magazine articles, and dispatches instruct the student in efficient reading methods.

TITLE	Party Strategy and Tactics
OBJECTIVE	To analyze the strategic and tactical problems confronting Communist Parties in the Free World, and to provide concrete knowledge, using case histories, of the techniques which they use to expand their strength and influence
PREREQUISITES	Top Secret clearance Introduction to Communism Phase of Intelligence Orientation, or equivalent
ENROLLMENT	10 to 20
DURATION	2 weeks, half-time (40 hours)
LOCATION	Headquarters

This course offers a broad analysis of the strategic programs and tactical methods developed by Free World Communist Parties and their relationship to the International Communist program. It provides both the Communist interpretations of the aims and methods of Communist Parties operating in the political contexts of the nations of the Free World, and descriptive data concerning the actual scope and nature of Communist Party activities. It is available to intelligence officers throughout the Agency who are concerned with the general problem of analyzing and evaluating the political strength of Communist Parties.

Following a brief review of Communist organizational principles, the structure of International Communism and of a typical national Communist Party, and the functions of major Party components, this course concentrates primarily upon a detailed analysis of the development of Party programs and the extra-Party activities employed in carrying out those programs. The course includes a series of basic readings, lecture-discussions, and the preparation of a brief analytical paper.
